Date of Activity	26.4.2022
Organized by	Department of English
Objectives	The objective behind screening of the movie was to instill in the students a love and desire for improving their English Language skills.
Brief Report	The Dept. of English had organized the Certificate Course in Basic Communication Skills from 1 st April 2022 to 30 th April 2022. On the concluding day an inspiring movie “My Fair Lady” was screened for the students in room No.10 at 11:00 a.m. This movie is based on “Pygmalion” a famous play of G.B. Shaw. It is the story of Prof. Higgins, a Professor of English and Eliza Dolittle a flower girl. Prof. Higgins trains Eliza and makes her proficient in speaking impeccable English. Owing to the hard work of Prof. Higgins and sincerity and dedication of Eliza, their hard work pays off. Eliza is transformed from a rustic flower girl to a suave elite lady of aristocratic circles. There was a stupendous response from the students. The students watched the movie with rapture. It was an enriching experience for them and inspired them immensely. Our honourable Principal Dr J.D Wadate also watched the movie. He enjoyed the movie and appreciated the initiative of the Department in screening this English movie and congratulated Dr Bipasha Ghoshal, Head, Department of English and her team for undertaking this endeavor.
Outcome	This movie could send the message that even persons from lower strata of the society lacking fluency in English can improve themselves and gain fluency in English by sheer dint of hard work.
Action Taken	Students were instructed to write a review on the film shown and to express their individual comments on the various characters of the film.
